

Teacher of Modern Foreign Languages Part Time (0.5)

Required for: September 2024

The Marist School seeks a motivated and innovative Teacher of Modern Foreign Languages to join our highly successful Modern Foreign Languages Department. The successful candidate will join an established and popular department within the school. They will be an inspirational teacher, capable of fostering a love of learning in students across all key stages.

Set in beautiful woodlands in the village of Sunninghill, near Ascot, The Marist School is a leading independent Catholic day school for girls aged 2 to 18. The Marist employs over 130 members of staff and we are proud to be a diverse community that fosters a family spirit across the school.

At The Marist we provide a thriving creative and challenging curriculum that promotes a learning environment where our students become the best they can be. Our students leave us with excellent academic results as well as the cognitive and people skills to be a success in whatever they choose to do.

This role represents a rare opportunity to join an outstanding department at an exciting time of growth and development at The Marist. The role can be tailored to suit either an ECT or strong graduate seeking their first teaching position, or an experienced teacher looking to develop their experience in a new environment.

Staff at The Marist School are part of a warm and welcoming community that is at the heart of the school. Our students are academically able, polite and eager to learn, making The Marist a truly outstanding place to work. The school boasts an extensive co-curricular programme, featuring over 100 clubs each week. Candidates wishing to coach Games will find their skills used.

Our staff enjoy a generous pension scheme, allocated on-site parking, free school meals and access to fitness facilities.

Prospective candidates are invited to contact Jonathon Walker, Assistant Head: Pastoral & Staff Development for an informal conversation about the role: jwalker@themarist.com

Feet on the ground. Reaching for the stars.
